

Cult Bathrooms: Milan Fuorisalone 2017

To celebrate Milan Design Week, Ceramica Globo created a video-installation featuring the most iconic film scenes dedicated to the bathroom. In this exhibition, Globo products were presented in a new way, paired with the graphics used in the cult movies projected on the walls. The new two-sided, self-supporting metal structures that were used for the installation will be, from now on, the new displays to make the products rotate more easily at the showroom.

ISH 2017 Frankfurt

This year too Ceramica Globo attended ISH in Frankfurt, an appointment the company can't afford to miss, especially in light of the international expansion that has been living over the past few years. Ceramica Globo's stand was in good company in Pavilion 3.1, with top sector players. The new collections Incanto, T-Edge, Display and the technological pluses caught the attention of the visitors, once again showing the outstanding qualities of Globo's approach to production.
